FROM: Linda Brecci,
Chair, Commission on the Status of Women

DATE: April 29, 2009

SUBJECT: Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) Recruitment

Thanks to those who were able to join us on April 28th for the CSW Recruitment Event. If you were not able to make the event, please take a few minutes to check out the CSW website at <http://www.csw.arizona.edu> to learn a little about the history of the Commission and the pivotal initiatives they have pursued and continue to pursue on behalf of the University community. We value your interest and possible participation. On the website in the "Spotlight" section, you will find an application form and directions for submission. DEADLINE for applications is Friday, May 8th.

CSW was established in 1993 to advise the President on policies and practices that benefit women and other underrepresented groups at the UA. The CSW shapes policies and procedures, delivers programs and funding, and offers leadership opportunities for its members. The Commission is comprised of women and men from all constituencies: faculty, staff, graduate and undergraduate students who work together to achieve the goal of creating a just, equitable and inclusive campus for all.

If you have any additional questions, or would like to talk to a member of the Commission, please feel free to contact Linda Brecci, Chair of CSW at 626-4108 or email brecci@u.arizona.edu.

Thanks again for your interest, and we look forward to welcoming you as a future member of CSW!
