Re: CSW Recruitment Event - Today!

It is not too late to take part in the Recruitment Event for the UA Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) taking place today from 3:00 - 5:00 pm in the Tucson Room at the Student Memorial Center! If you are interested in learning more about becoming a commissioner please drop by the Tucson Room.

No reservations are necessary!

CSW was established in 1993 to advise the President on policies and practices that benefit women and other underrepresented groups at the University of Arizona and within the Tri-University system. The CSW shapes policies and procedures, delivers programs and funding, and offers leadership opportunities for its members. The Commission is comprised of women and men from all constituencies: faculty, staff, graduate and undergraduate students who work together to achieve the goal of creating a just, equitable and inclusive campus for all.

The recruitment program will include brief reports from workgroup chairs about the activities undertaken during the past year, and short presentations by community members who have benefited from CSW programs and services. There will be ample time to talk with Commissioners and to review a variety of materials designed to inform participants about the history and progress of the CSW. Light refreshments will be served. All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

If you have questions about the recruitment event please contact Lanette Mackey at lanettem@email.arizona.edu or call 626-5502.
