

TO: Campus Community
FROM: Mary E. Voyatzis, Chair, Commission on the Status of Women
Date: Thu, 5 Apr 2007 09:43:06 -0700
RE: Recipients of the CSW 2007 Mini-Grant Awards

Please join us in congratulating the recipients of the 2007 CSW Mini-Grant Awards. Grants are awarded to projects that promote the goals of CSW at the University of Arizona. This year CSW received an unprecedented number of applications for funding. Of the 23 applications we received, we were able to fund nine projects. The awarded projects promise to advance CSW's goals by creating a more diverse and inclusive campus community. They are the following:

Youth in Action Against Rape: Sexual Assault Prevention at Skrappy's
A gender-inclusive sexual assault prevention workshop
Leo Lamanna, MS student, Women's Studies

Celebrating Diversity in Science and Engineering Awards Banquet
Women & leadership
Kathy Powell, Program Coordinator, Women's Studies, Organization: WISE

Female Leadership in Science and Business: Dialogues for Success
Women & leadership
Alaina Levine, Director of Special Projects, College of Science

The Situation of Female Faculty in Male-Dominant Academic Environments: A Social Interaction Analysis
Equity
Shannon Holleran, Graduate Student, Psychology
Jessica Whitehead, Graduate Student, Psychology

The Joys and Challenges of American Indian Women in Universities in Arizona
Diversity
Mary Jo Tippeconnic Fox, Associate Professor, American Indian Studies

Diez y Sies with a Double Dash of Michele Serros
Diversity
Cecilia Valencia, student, Social & Behav. Science
Sandra Soto, Assistant Professor, Women's Studies

Women in the Wildlife Profession
Advancement opportunities for women
Kerry Nicholson, Graduate Assistant, Wildlife and Fisheries Resources

Women in Science Forum

Advancement opportunities for women
Stephanie Juneau, Graduate Student, Steward Observatory
Stephanie Cortes, Graduate Student, Steward Observatory

Raising Public Awareness and Generating Involvement in the Women's Plaza of Honor
Promote equity and diversity
Liz Kennedy, Professor, Women's Studies

For more information on the Mini Grant Program, visit our website at <http://csw.arizona.edu>