Subject: Final Reminder for CSW Mini Grants

Date: January 23, 2006
To: The Campus Community
From: Barbara Hoffman, Commission on the Status of Women
Re: Final Reminder for CSW Mini Grants

The deadline to submit proposals to the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) Mini Grant program is coming up. All proposals must be received by Tuesday, February 28th. Paper copies may be delivered to the Diversity Resource Office, MLK Building Room 304 or faxed to 626-3562 before 5 p.m. Proposals may also be submitted by email to csw@email.arizona.edu. Email submissions must be time stamped prior to midnight.

Proposals may be submitted for funding amounts up to $1,500. Awards will be made based on the impact of the project to advance the goals of the CSW at the University.

The CSW works to

- identify and provide leadership on issues that affect women and other underrepresented groups
- develop and support university policies and practices that promote equity and diversity
- promote advancement opportunities for women and other under-represented groups
- collaborate with campus organizations and groups to create inclusive and safe communities
- foster individual and collective accountability that promotes justice, equity and diversity
- educate the campus community about the importance of developing a diverse and inclusive campus.

Eligibility

All members of the University of Arizona: students, faculty, and staff, departments and organizations are eligible to apply for the grant funds.
