

The Commission on the Status of Women at the University of Arizona present the 8th Annual Young Women's Empowerment Academy

Saturday March 8th, 2014, 8:00am to 2:30pm
The University of Arizona, Memorial Student Union, North Ballroom
Open to Youth 13 – 18 years and Parent/Cargivers
Cost: Free, space is limited, register now!

Includes a light breakfast, lunch will be provided to student participants.

This events mission, in line with The University of Arizona's "Never Settle" Strategic Plan, is to have a lasting, positive impact on the youth in our community by inspiring to improve self-image, sharpen leadership skills, and stimulate healthy decision-making, which will have a lasting societal impact.

Featured speaker: The first female fighter pilot, Martha McSally

Student participant workshops include:

Healthy Body Image and Self-Esteem: Presented by Monica Davis, Dominique Cruz and Elise Lopez-Hanshaw from UA's Southwest Institute for Research on Women.

Creepy or Cute: An Oasis Program against sexual assault and relationship violence, presented by Megan McKendry from UA's Campus Health Service.

Lead Now: "Helping students learn, practice, and engage in leadership for social change," presented by Kaila Schubert, Student Ambassador from the Arizona Blue Chip Program.

College - Dream to Reality: Presented by Karina Rodriguez from the Office of Early Academic Outreach.

Parent/Caregivers Workshops (8:00am – 10:45am) include:

TPD Safety Tips for Teens: Presented by Tucson Police

College: Dream to Reality for Your Child: Presented by the Office of Early Academic Outreach

Please contact LuAnn Cordero 621-3700 or Charlotte Honeycutt 621-1004 with any questions.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

Advocates for a Just, Equitable and Inclusive Campus